

Bonanza Youth Fare Continues

Bonanza Air Lines will continue "youth fares" offering half-fare air travel for everyone between the ages of 12 and 22, Larry Decker, vice president - traffic and sales, announced.

All of the trunk airlines have withdrawn the youth fare after only a 30-60 day trial.

"Bonanza plans to retain the youth fares indefinitely, particularly for the benefit of students, employed young people and members of the armed forces," Decker said. "We believe continuation of the special air fare will convert more and more young American to this modern way of travel and keep them off the crowded, dangerous highways."
